Convocation at Carleton University

The Convocation ceremony (the calling together of the academic assembly) has its roots in university traditions of medieval Europe.

The Mace

The mace is a staff symbolizing authority. In the days of knighthood, it was a weapon, but after the 16th century it became solely a symbol of authority carried by a distinguished member of an assembly. It is used on ceremonial occasions to signify the right of an individual or institution to perform a certain function—in the case of universities, to grant degrees.

At Convocation, the mace is carried ahead of the Chancellor as she enters and leaves each ceremony. (Marshal of Convocation H.H.J. Nesbitt has performed this function for all but one of the University's Convocations.) During the ceremony the mace is displayed on a special stand as an embodiment of the authority of the University.

Carleton's mace was presented to the University in 1976 as a gift from the Chairman of the Board of Governors at that time, Mr. Hyman Soloway. It is a silver-plated staff approximately three feet long. At the upper end there is a bowl marked with the University's coat of arms and the University motto in both Latin and English—"Opera Nobis Aeterna" and "Ours the Task Eternal." From the upper portion of the bowl rises a phoenix. Traditional oak leaves surround the lower end of the staff.

Coat of Arms

Carleton University's coat of arms is described in heraldic terms as follows: "On a field sable; in radiants d'argent, a maple leaf gules charged with an open book; crest—a phoenix propre." It is comprised of a black shield bearing an open book on a red maple leaf surrounded by silver rays. The shield is surmounted by a phoenix, and below the shield is a scroll bearing the motto "Ours the Task Eternal."

The open book on the maple leaf signifies that Carleton University is in the nation's capital and that learning is open to all who wish to partake of it. The radiants are the light of learning. The phoenix, the legendary eternal bird, symbolizes the renewing of learning from older foundations, in recognition of Henry Marshall Tory's role in the founding of the University when he was 82 years old. "Ours the Task Eternal" is taken from a Walt Whitman poem entitled "Pioneers" and ties in with the eternal quality of the phoenix.

And so, the Carleton University coat of arms symbolizes sound learning, good citizenship, and the highest hopes of humanity.

The Diploma

The diploma the graduates receive at Convocation is the certificate of qualification which publishes the fact that the student has fulfilled all the requirements and completed the prescribed course of study for the degree. As the senior academic legislative body of the University, it is the Senate which has determined whether the requirements have been met. The signatures of both the Chancellor and the President of the University appear on the diploma: the Chancellor because of her role in conferring the degree, and the President who, as Chairman of Senate, certifies that Senate has enacted the required motion to award the degree. The Seal of the University is affixed to the diploma as a mark of authentication.

Academic Dress

The academic dress of Carleton University is a compromise between that found in the ancient foundations of Britain and Canada and the American Intercollegiate Code. All three hoods—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's—are of the simple or Oxford shape. Bachelor's is made of black stuff; master's and doctor's are made of black silk and all are lined with silver silk with two chevrons, one of red and one of black. From bachelor's to doctor's the hoods are progressively longer and opened to show more and more of the lining.

The velvet border of the hoods denotes the degrees granted according to the following colour combinations: architecture is cerise; arts is white; commerce is camel brown; computer science is royal blue; engineering is orange; industrial design is dark cardinal; journalism is white with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; management studies is camel brown with a black cord sewn slightly in from the lower border; music is venetian pink; public administration is peacock blue; science is golden yellow; social work is cream; and doctor of philosophy is purple.

The bachelor's gown, to be worn with the above hoods, is of full length, made of black stuff, with a gathered yolk behind, and long open-fronted sleeves. The master's gown is of full style, made of black silk or rayon, with full gathered yolk behind, and closed sleeves with an opening at the elbows. The doctoral gown is the same style as the master's, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings of light blue silk.

The gown of the Honorary Doctor of Laws, Literature, Science, and Engineering is a full robe with bell-shaped sleeves, made of fine royal blue cloth with facings and sleeves in light blue silk. The hood is made of the same material as the gown, has the same lining as that for degrees by examination, and is bordered with dark mauve for the degree Doctor of Laws; vibrant blue for the degree Doctor of Literature; red for the degree Doctor of Science; and orange for the degree Doctor of Engineering.

The Presiding Officer of Convocation is the Chancellor,

Peter Ustinov

As one of the world's most versatile and talented contributors to the arts, Sir Peter Ustinov will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the morning ceremony on Thursday, June 13, "in recognition of a distinguished career as an actor, producer, director, novelist and playwright, combined with a deep and active concern for a number of humanitarian causes."

Sir Peter began his career at 14, became an actor at the age of 17, a star at 18, a playwright at 19 and a producer by the time he was 20. His career is so prolific that for the sake of this biography, it must be reduced to mere numbers. He has received two Academy Awards, three Emmy Awards, a Grammy and a New York Critics' Award for performances as an actor. In between Sir Peter's many appearances (38 movies, 20 plays, and 18 roles for television), he has written 10 books (two on Russia), 25 plays, and nine motion picture scripts. Over and above all this, he has found time during the past 20 years to act as Ambassador-at-Large for UNICEF, travelling the world to publicize their cause. Although he has been recognized over the years by many institutions, his greatest honours have come in the past few, with his election in 1989 to the French Académie des Beaux-Arts, taking the chair previously held by Orson Welles, and in June, 1990 when he was created a Knight of the Realm by her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

Bertha Wilson

The Honourable Bertha Wilson, recently retired from the Supreme Court of Canada, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the afternoon ceremony on Thursday, June 13, "in recognition of distinguished service to the legal profession, the law, and the welfare of all Canadians through strong and eloquent support for the rights of the disadvantaged."

Madame Justice Wilson received her M.A. from the University of Aberdeen and while her husband was stationed in Halifax as a Chaplain in the Royal Canadian Navy, took her law degree at Dalhousie University in 1957. In the years immediately following, she was called to the Bars of Nova Scotia and Ontario. She practised law in Toronto for 17 years with the firm of Osler, Hoskin and Harcourt and was a member of the Ontario and National Councils of the Canadian Bar Association. Madame Justice Wilson was made a judge of the Ontario Court of Appeal in 1975 and was appointed to the Supreme Court of Canada on March 4, 1982. She retired from the Court on January 4, 1991. Over the years, she has received honorary degrees from 14 Canadian universities, from her alma mater, the University of Aberdeen, and from Chatham College in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Norman D. Fenn

Mr. Norman D. Fenn, former Dean of Student Services at Carleton University, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the morning ceremony on Friday, June 14, "in recognition of a significant contribution to the University in the area of student life and of unselfish commitment in service to the broader community."

After serving in World War II as a volunteer with the American Field Service in India and Burma, Mr. Fenn continued to provide relief and rehabilitation services in Pakistan, Kashmir and again, in India. Upon his return in 1948, he became Assistant Director of Physical Education and Athletics at Berea College, Berea, Kentucky. In 1952, Mr. Fenn began his long career at Carleton University, first as Director of Athletics, then as Director of Student Affairs. He left Carleton briefly to serve as Assistant Executive Director at the George Junior Republic, a residential treatment centre for adolescents but returned to Carleton in 1966 as Director of Counselling and Health Services. In 1973, Mr. Fenn was appointed Dean of Student Services, the position he officially retired from in 1980. Mr. Fenn received his B.Sc. and M.Ed. from Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts.

Leslie G. Jaeger

Dr. Leslie G. Jaeger, Research Professor of Civil Engineering and Applied Mathematics at the Technical University of Nova Scotia, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Engineering, honoris causa, at the afternoon ceremony on Friday, June 14, "in recognition of a distinguished career as an educator, researcher, and administrator in the field of civil engineering and as a role model in the development of innovative solutions to problems of engineering practice."

Dr. Jaeger has been a member of academia since 1952. His past appointments include Regius Professor of Engineering, Edinburgh University; Dean of Engineering, University of New Brunswick; Vice President (Academic), Acadia University; and Vice President (Research), Technical University of Nova Scotia. A designer of highway bridges, Dr. Jaeger's practical accomplishments include being technical editor of the Ontario Highway Bridge Design Code and serving as an Associate at Vaughan Engineering Associates Limited, Halifax. He is also the author of six books and 140 refereed papers. He was recently nominated to the position of Senior Vice President and President Elect of the Canadian Society for Civil Engineering. Dr. Jaeger graduated with first-class honours from Cambridge University in 1946 and was subsequently elected a Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge.

Enrique V. Iglesias

Mr. Enrique V. Iglesias, President of the Inter-American Development Bank, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, at the morning ceremony on Saturday, June 15, "in recognition of an outstanding contribution to the international economic order, with particular reference to Latin America and the Caribbean."

Mr. Iglesias began his career in the private sector as Managing Director of the bank Union de Bancos del Uruguay. After four years with Uruguay's National Planning Office, he moved on to become President of Uruguay's Central Bank. From 1968-1971, he headed a group of experts preparing an extensive study of Latin America's economic situation which was carried out under the auspices of the Inter-American Bank. In 1972, he became Executive Secretary of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean. It was at this time that he also began his long association with the United Nations. As a UN delegate, he has chaired numerous conferences and written several papers mostly in the area of energy. Mr. Iglesias graduated from the University of the Republic of Uruguay in economics and business administration and went on to pursue specialized programs of study in the United States and France. He was awarded an honorary degree from the University of Liverpool in 1987.

Roberta L. Jamieson

Ms Roberta L. Jamieson, Ombudsman of Ontario, will be awarded the degree of Doctor Laws, honoris causa, at the afternoon ceremony on Saturday, June 15, "in recognition of pioneering work in the field of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms and as a role model for women and aboriginal people seeking to make a contribution to public life."

Ms Jamieson became Ombudsman of Ontario for a 10-year term in 1989. She is the fourth Ombudsman since the position was created in 1975. Prior to this, she served a three-year term as Commissioner of the Indian Commission of Ontario. Previously she was appointed an ex officio member of the Parliamentary Task Force on Indian Self-Government upon recommendation of the Assembly of First Nations. She has spoken to many groups on the subject of alternative dispute resolution and participated in related initiatives for the Canadian Bar Association. Ms Jamieson, a Mohawk, was the first Indian woman in Canada to earn a Bachelor of Laws degree when she graduated from the University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law. She also has an honorary degree from Dalhousie University.
